QUESTION 4

A contract has been finalised between a water sports team ("the team") from Multimedia University and Fast & Furious Taxis Sdn. Bhd. (FFT). In the contract stated that FFT is to arrange for transportation for the team on 1 April 2019. The team will participate in the International Dragon Boat Festival and they need to go to Johor from Melaka. The team was unaware that FFT taxis are operating without a license. The team has booked a 12 seater van taxi for the trip to Johor and return to Melaka. The total was RM2,500. The team paid a deposit of RM500 to FFT for the trip from Malacca to Johor. The balance of RM2000 to be paid upon their return.

The travelling was unpleasant due to the poorly maintain condition of the van and the driver's attitude, Mr Dom, who was rude and inconsiderate. Shaw, a member of the team, asked Poh to teach the driver a lesson. Shaw promised to pay Poh RM100 if he would Poh punched the driver's nose. He did and the driver shouted in pain.

Upon returning from Johor, the team later discovered that FFT was unlicensed, so they refused to pay the balance of RM2000. Later, FFT demanded the balance of RM2000 and informed the team that they would take legal action against them for failure to pay the full balance amount. Further, Mr Dom requested from the team RM100 for the injury that he had suffered at Johor.

Advise the team, FFT and Mr Dom on whether there is any action to be taken by them.
